

4. Table of Contents (Provisional)

Part I – Foundations of Ethics and Integrity in Policing

Chapter 1. Introduction: Why Ethics Training Matters in Policing

Chapter 2. Theoretical Frameworks: Integrity, Legitimacy, and Democratic Policing

Chapter 3. Institutional Culture and the Hidden Curriculum

Chapter 4. From Enforcers to Partners: Building a Culture of Peace, Integrity, and Human-Centered Policing

Chapter 5. Global Standards: UN, EU, and US Human Rights Guidelines for Police Conduct

Chapter 6. Foundations of Ethics Education: Learning Theories and Pedagogical Principles

Part II – Comparative National Perspectives

Introductory Note: This section explains why selected countries were chosen and highlights comparative learning objectives.

Chapter 7. The United States: Federal Models and Decentralized Training Structures

Chapter 8. Germany: Federal Police Ethics and Decentralized Länder Practices

Chapter 9. Portugal: Integrating EU Norms into National Police Academies

Chapter 10. France: Ethics in the Gendarmerie vs. Civil Police

Chapter 11. Poland and Central-Eastern Europe: Post-Transition Integrity Reform

Chapter 12. Cross-Atlantic Observations: Culture, Accountability, and Public Trust

Part III – Applied Perspectives in Training and Policy

Introductory Note: Focuses on practical strategies for curriculum design, instructor development, and institutional reform.

Chapter 13. Curriculum Design: Pedagogical Tools and Case Study-Based Learning

Chapter 14. Role of Ethics Instructors: Professional Development and Institutional Support

Chapter 15. Whistleblower Protections and Internal Affairs: Integrating Oversight into Training

Chapter 16. Challenges in Ethics Training: AI, Technology, Surveillance, Bias, and Equality

Chapter 17. Toward a Common Framework: Policy Recommendations for Ethics Training Reform

Conclusion:

From Training to Transformation – A Blueprint for Ethical Policing in the 21st Century